

W.H.D. Koerner (1878–1938), And So, Unemotionally, There Began One of the Wildest and Strangest Journeys Ever Made in Any Land, 1923. Oil on canvas, 22.25 x 72.25 inches, 7.69

Celebrate the Spirit of the American West with the Buffalo Bill Historical Center
Sample Itinerary

- 8 a.m. Tour the Buffalo Bill Historical Center and experience the many threads of the western experience in our galleries – history and myth, art and Native culture, firearms technology and natural history. Admission is good for two consecutive days
Want More? Immerse yourself in the real West with one of our favorite ten experiences as an add-on to your visit. Not enough time to do it all? Schedule one of these unforgettable experiences as a stand - alone activity. (See brochure www.bbhc.org/groupsales)
- Noon Take a well-deserved break and line the flue at the Buffalo Bill Historical Center’s Eatery and/or Coffee Shop or pre-schedule a Saddlebag Lunch in our Bison Byway area, designed especially for groups.
- 12:30 p.m. Shop the Buffalo Bill Historical Center’s Museum Store for western memorabilia to commemorate your visit to Cody
- 1:30 p.m. Ride the waves with one of Cody’s white water rafting companies
- 4 p.m. Tour and shop Cody’s historic downtown filled with western art/furniture galleries and unique shopping opportunities
- 6 p.m. Step back in time and witness the Cody Gun Fight re-enactment located in downtown Cody outside the historic Irma Hotel • June–September 15
- 6:30 p.m. Chow down some chuck at one of Cody’s fine restaurants
OR
Join the Cody Cattle Company for a chuck wagon dinner and cowboy music show • June 1–September 25
- 8 p.m. Savor the sights, sounds, and smells of the Cody Nite Rodeo • June 1–August 31
OR
Get your cowboy music/poetry fix at Dan Miller’s Cowboy Music Revue, a Branson-style music show • Monday through Saturday, May 19–September 28
- 10 p.m. Relax and hunker down at one of Cody’s lodging establishments

Other Trail Options

Yellowstone National Park, of course!
Old Trail Town
Buffalo Bill Dam Visitor Center

A sampling of Special Events in Cody and surrounding towns in 2012:

May 4, 2012	Cody's East Entrance Open to Yellowstone National Park (Weather permitting)
May 12-13, 2012	Cody Wild West Days – Horse sale and races – Around Cody
June 1, 2012	Cody Nite Rodeo begins – Rodeo Grounds
June 7-9, 2012	Cody's Wild West Shoot Out – Cowboy action shooting – Downtown Cody
June 13 – 17, 2012	Jake Clark's Mule Days - Ralston, WY (10 miles northeast of Cody)
June 16 - 17, 2012	30th Annual Plains Indian Museum Powwow - Buffalo Bill Historical Center
June 30, 2012	Yellowstone/Cody PRCA Xtreme Bulls - Cody Rodeo grounds
July 1 - 4, 2012	92nd Annual Cody Stampede Rodeo, Parades, Music - In and around Cody
July 6-8, 2012	Winchester Club of America Gun Show, Winchester Arms Collectors Association, & Sharp's Collection Association - Cody Auditorium
July 14 - 15, 2012	Yellowstone Jazz Festival - Cody City Park, The Terrace, and the BBHC
July 24 – 28, 2012	Park County Fair - Powell, WY (25 miles Northeast of Cody)
August 3 - 5, 2012	16th Annual Wild West Balloon Fest - Cody, WY
August 4 - 5, 2012	Wings & Wheels - Powell, WY
August 31, 2012	Cody Nite Rodeo final night
September 2 - 4, 2012	Meeteetse Labor Day Celebration - Meeteetse, WY (30 miles Southeast of Cody)
September 19 - 20, 2012	Cody High Style: Designing the West - Western furniture, metal, and fashion Buffalo Bill Historical Center
September 21 - 22, 2012	Buffalo Bill Art Show & Sale - Buffalo Bill Historical Center and around Cody

Please contact the Cody Chamber of Commerce for more information at 307.587.2297 or 1.800.393.CODY or www.yellowstonecountry.org.

Buffalo Bill Historical Center
720 Sheridan Avenue • Cody, Wyoming
307.587.4771 • www.bbhc.org